that this House recommends to the Lok Sabha that the Lok Sabha do join in the said Committee and communicate to this House the names of members to be appointed by the Lok Sabha to the Joint Committee."

The question was proposed.

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH (West Bengal): Madam Deputy Chairman, I have no objection to this motion. But the question is, the issue which has been sought to be referred to the Joint Select Committee is about electoral reforms. The issue was discussed many a time in the past having already been referred to two Select Committees. During the previous Government's tenure, it was discussed with all the political parties A small Committee was constituted. Various suggestions were put forth before the Government. And thereupon, a Bill was framed. Again that Bill is sent to the Joint Select Committee. And in the motion itself it was stated that the report should come forth by the 157th Session which means the next Session. The hon Minister has been proposing that it should come forth by the 160th Session. This is a very important issue. We have been discussing this issue for the last four or five years. It had been referred to certain Select Committees. It was discussed at political level. A political level committee was constituted Mr. Shiv Shanker and other senior leaders were in that small Committee. That small Committee had made suggestions. The Bill was prepared and it came here in the past. It is again being referred to a Joint Select Committee. That means we had failed. Therefore, the Bill came naturally in this way The parliamentary job, the legislative job, is done I would like to say that not by the 160th Session, but by the next Session the job must be completed and the report should come forth. Thank you, Madam.

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA (Andhra Pradesh): '157' should remain as it is. I do not think the Minister should amend it at this stage having given notice for the 157th Session.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The question is.
